
FLEET ONE ADDING 49 JOBS IN NASHVILLE

Fleet One LLC, which provides fuel cards and fleet-related payment solutions to businesses and government agencies, plans to add 49 jobs in Middle Tennessee. The company currently employs 190 people at its Nashville headquarters. That number has quadrupled since Fleet One merged with Transplatinum Services Corp. in 2001, the Nashville Business Journal reports. "We are immensely proud of Fleet One's continued growth in calendar year 2009 and are pleased to open these job opportunities in Nashville," CEO and President Andy Roberts said in a press release. Fleet One provides fuel and maintenance purchasing controls, detailed reporting, online account management and additional money-saving services to its clients. It is a division of Fleet One Holdings LLC, a portfolio company of LLR Partners and FTV Capital. The jobs being offered by Fleet One can be found on the Nashville Chamber of Commerce Web site at www.nashvillechamber.com

<https://blog.granted.com/>