DOWNTOWN TAMPA PROJECT TO CREATE THOUSANDS OF JOBS

Thousands of jobs are being created through a redevelopment project in downtown Tampa, Fla. Dubbed Encore, the project will create 1,000 permanent jobs and 4,000 people will be needed to complete the project. Encore will feature a hotel, condos, a school, grocery store and a skate park. The project is designed to incorporate the history of the area, which used to be known as Central Park Village and was a former haunt of musicians such as Ray Charles, James Brown and Gladys Knight, according to Tampa's ABC Action News. A job fair was slated to take place at the project site today from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Experienced and non-experienced construction workers are encouraged to apply.
