
ADP ADDING HUNDREDS OF JOBS WITH NEW FACILITY

A ribbon-cutting ceremony is slated for 1 p.m. Tuesday by Automatic Data Processing Inc. for a new facility in Coraopolis, Pennsylvania. The facility, which will house the payroll giant's TeleSales department, is expected to create "several hundred jobs," a spokesman told the Pittsburgh Business Times. Automatic Data Processing Inc. based in Rutherford, N.J., has nearly $9 billion in revenues and about 570,000 clients, according to its Web site. Its TeleSales department consists of marketing its payroll, benefits administration and human resources' services. The Pittsburgh Business Journal reports the new facility will cater to the needs of small and medium-sized businesses.
