

BOTTLING COMPANY SET FOR JOB FAIR NEAR ORLANDO

[caption id="attachment_6069" align="alignright" width="160" caption="florida flag"] [caption] Niagara Bottling LLC is hoping to fill 40 positions at its bottling plant near Orlando with a job fair on Wednesday. The fair will be held from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the Civic Auditorium/Jenkins Hall in Clermont. The company said it plans to hire shift mechanics, preventative maintenance mechanics, inventory control associates, machine operators, forklift operators, shipping associates, warehouse supervisors and other management positions. The Orlando Business Journal reports salaries will start in the high $30,000. Niagra's bottling plant opened in August 2008. According to the Business Journal, the company recently gained approval to draw up to 484,000 gallons of groundwater daily to manufacture plastic water bottles.
