
TIPS FOR EXPERIENCED PROFESSIONALS LOOKING FOR WORK

The most important thing to do before searching a job is to sit back and plan. One must assess his education; Review his relevant work experience if any, network with contacts working in the same industry and if required take the service of a career counselor. Always remember there are employers ready to give jobs and employees willing to work.

Read the full article here:

Job Search Tips for the Experienced Professional - Boston Globe

<https://blog.granted.com/>