

MICHIGAN WORKS ASSOCIATION - A RESOURCE FOR JOB-SEEKERS AND EMPLOYERS

A regional division of the Michigan Works Association, is a resource for both job-seekers and employers in the community. Those seeking employment can receive help with resumes and cover letters, attend workshops on conducting a job search, and even participate in mock interviews. Employers with job vacancies can also benefit from networking services that help put their recruiters in contact with eligible job candidates. Read the full article here: Use Michigan Works! in your employment quest - Port Huron Times Herald

<https://blog.granted.com/>