

TOP 5 TIPS FOR COLLEGE BOUND STUDENTS

The author James W. Lewis, President of NSSHS briefly gives five important pointers students should look out for when applying to college. Academics, rightly pointed out is the first major factor which influences decision making followed by finding answers to questions like course structure, staying away from home, scholarships, university/private college and the likewise. He also explains about scholarships and the Free Application for Federal Student Aid offered by various colleges and also emphasizes on enrichment activities like community service which can help a student stand out amongst the various applications to a particular college.

Read the full article here:

The Top 5 Tips Every High School Student Should Know When Applying to College - Fox News

<https://blog.granted.com/>