

MCINTYRE HOSTS WORKSHOP FOR JOB SEEKERS

Rep. Mike McIntyre will host a session, which will help people learn strategies and tips for making resumes, searching for jobs online, filling out applications and deciding when it's time for a career change. McIntyre calls it a "boot camp" for job seekers and the session will be held on Monday at the Robeson Community College in Lumberton. The entry is restricted by registration. He will also talk about efforts in Washington to help Americans get back to work.
