

---

DEAR JEREMY WORK AND CAREERS ADVICE: SPEAK UP

A 60 year old man after retirement is in hunt for a job again in his life and want himself to cope up with todays young job seekers .he have good experience in law and IT in teaching department .his first experience was in law and when the job market in law was dull he went to IT department again went back to law when there was a collapse in IT since age is the major factor for him to apply for new job also he is suffering from arthritis he cant work for a full time but only parttime job he require tips to present himself in a good way to get qualified for a job

Read the full article here:

Dear Jeremy work and careers advice: have your say - The Guardian (blog)

<https://blog.granted.com/>