

FINDING A JOB THROUGH SOCIAL MEDIA

Several social media helps to find out the job which is the right place to work on for. In order to use the social media for job finding, fill up the registration and upload the resume mentioning the nature of job needed. Companies looking for workers will check the resume for qualification and if it matches, they will call for interview.

Read the full article here:

How to use social media to find a job - Toronto Star \(blo

<https://blog.granted.com/>