

---

CRACKING THE NEW JOB MARKET [HISPANIC OUTLOOK IN HIGHER EDUCATION, THE] - INSURANCE NEWS NET (PRESS RELEASE)

Deregulation, technological advances and foreign competition for outsourced jobs due to globalization have all contributed to pickings not only for blue-collar workers, but also for white collar executives Author "Holland' cautions job seekers to make sure they read job descriptions carefully, paying special attention to key words and incorporating them into their résumé. The more information a job seeker has about a company, the better is to finalize a job. It is helpful for readers on financial planning in today's uncertain world, applying the new job rules to the international marketplace.

Read the full article here:

[Cracking the New Job Market \[Hispanic Outlook in Higher Education, The\] - Insurance News Net \(press release\)](#)

<https://blog.granted.com/>