

CHEVRON EXPANDS, TO CREATE OVER 1000 NEW JOBS

Chevron is investing over $1.4 million to facilitate its expansion plan at its new lubricant plant in Pascagoula, Mississippi. The new investment is expected to create more than 1,000 manufacturing jobs in the area. The new plant is projected to produce about 25,000 barrels a day of premium base oil. Tom Kovar, general manager at Chevron's refinery, said that the new plant is set for completion in the next two years.
