

WORKSHOP FURNISHES STUDENTS WITH FINANCIAL ADVICE AND JOB SEARCH STRATEGIES

When December, college graduates leave school and begin looking for work in Nebraska, they will have a head start. A free workshop called "Operation Graduation" will work to assist students in their search for employment, and how to deal with real life factors such as business etiquette. The workshop will also cover some practical subjects such as repaying student loans, buying a home, starting a retirement fund, and choosing insurance coverage. Read the full article here:

Workshop provides students with financial advice and job search strategies - Daily Nebraskan

<https://blog.granted.com/>