

HOLIDAYS: BEST TIME TO FIND JOB

Many people consider the holidays to be a poor time for a job search, but fewer job seekers, more networking opportunities, and more available managers mean that this could be the ideal time to be engaging in a job search. In particular, holiday parties are a great opportunities to engage in networking that could land you employment with some of these helpful hints.

Read the full article here:

Holidays are often best time to land a job - Kansas City Star

<https://blog.granted.com/>