

NORTH CAROLINA GETTING 1,200 NEW CALL CENTER JOBS

Charlotte, NC, is going to be receiving a welcome gift this year: 1,200 new jobs. These jobs are coming courtesy of a Florida-based company called Connexions, which has existing locations in Florida, Indiana, and Concord, NC. The company provides services for insurance health care providers, such as call center services. It needs more than 400 additional employees for its Concord facility, and is looking for 800 employees to run a new facility in Charlotte, North Carolina. The average salary for these positions is $35,000 to $45,000, and the company is offering incentives for those are hired. Connexions has already begun the hiring process, and will most likely have a job fair to make sure all of the positions are filled. It plans on getting all of the jobs filled by October.
