
800 NEW JOB OPENINGS FOR LEGOLAND FLORIDA

In an attempt to reach out to its potential workers, the Polk County theme park, Legoland Florida, has announced 800 vacancies ahead of its October opening. The applications can be submitted online for a variety of positions starting from $7.75 in areas such as operations, food services and retail online. The director of the human resources department Teresa Vaughn said that customer service and a kid focused approach are two things they are looking for in the applicants.
