TIPS FOR ASPIRING ACTORS FROM EXPERIENCED ENTERTAINERS

This article is about how to get into acting, tips and tricks from professional entertainers. The most obvious point, which starts out the article, is that people should have the right motivation when trying to "break out" into the acting business. People who are looking just to get paid will, more than likely, be disappointed. The article encourages would-be actors and actresses to be willing to take small parts, instead of looking only for high-paying gigs, and to not be discouraged by rejection. If they stick with it, and are smart about it, the results can really pay off!
