

TAXES AND REGULATIONS MAKE BUSINESSES LEAVE CALIFORNIA FOR OTHER STATES

Due to California's increasing regulations and tax rates, many Golden State companies are pack their bags and heading out. The Chief Executive magazine went as far as to rank California the worst place to do business in the United States of America. Companies are relocating to business friendly states like Florida, Texas, Utah and Arizona. Companies headed to Florida are being greeted by more customers, lower operational expenses and a huge tax relief. Read the original article here: California companies fleeing the Golden State
