
TIPS FOR ANYONE WHO HAS RECENTLY LOST THEIR JOB

Space workers are being laid off because of the downturn in the economy. This article talks about the intricacies of their severance packages and also how you should apply without delay for unemployment benefits. These workers must get used to revising their budgets, reducing their expenditure and must also watch out for con artists who offer too good to be true jobs where you can supposedly make thousands working at home. Read the full article here: Newly jobless taking stock - Florida Today

<https://blog.granted.com/>