
RECESSION IS INCREASING THE RACIAL WEALTH GAP

It has become evident from a recent study by the Pew Research Center that ethnicity is playing a dividing role in the household wealth of American population. When the assets of a family and its debts are calculated, whites are far better off than the blacks and Hispanic households. The recession has severely widened the household wealth gap among American citizens, the details of which are available on money.cnn.com Read the full article here: Recession worsens racial wealth gap
