

"LANDING THE JOB" TIPS FOR JOB SEEKERS

Demonstrating the old fashioned behaviors of courtesy, social skills and, perhaps the most important, integrity and responsibility, gives the candidate a good edge in looking for and landing the job. Good listening skills and an understanding of the company's problems that the candidate is expected to solve will be of great advantage.

Read the full article here:

An edge for discouraged job seekers - Chicago Tribune

<https://blog.granted.com/>