
NEED FOR BETTER INFRASTRUCTURE AND LESS REGULATIONS

The U.S. is getting support from chief executives of some of the world's largest companies to update aging infrastructure, financed in part by private money. The initiative is a way to create jobs and make competition in U.S. business. The members of the CEO Council urged the U.S. to accept global free trade, and make alterations that will encourage the growth of export industries here. Read the article here: CEOs Call for Less Regulation, Better Infrastructure

<https://blog.granted.com/>