

IF PASSED, A REFERENDUM IN ATLANTA WILL RECRUIT PEOPLE AND CREATE JOBS

Atlanta's future is set for a change in 2012. The voting will be done for an investment to create and recruit jobs in Atlanta. The referendum has to be passed in 2012 for this to take place. Water conservation has also to be done and Georgia leads the nation in this regard. Education is also needed for the purpose of having a knowledgeable workforce and the next generation should also be cared for. The business community is also involved in the task of creating jobs.
