

---

1 MILLION JOBS TO BE CREATED ACCORDING TO THE JOBS PLAN

Job plans by President Obama got a thumbs up by all economist. Around 1 million jobs are expected to be created when the package will be passed by Congress next year. Main motto to increase employment is to increase the financial condition and the individual too. Local demand by consumer will definitely increase will increased flow of money in the society through more jobs. More demand shall lead to more hiring. Read the original article here: Jobs plan may create 1 million jobs - economists

<https://blog.granted.com/>