

JOB SEEKERS MEET EMPLOYERS, GET TIPS

Horicon Phoenix Program and Horicon Public Library hosted a job fair wherein the job seekers were provided with tips on how to put together a résumé. The idea came about after a conversation she had with her mother, a career counselor, about how often people came to the library for assistance with their résumés. Many of the attendees were looking for jobs after the company has downsized or closed. The turn out has led the organizers to hold it annually. Read the full article here:
