

CREATING A GOOD REFERENCE LIST

References are one of the most important factors in the hiring process. The professional reference-checking firm, Allison & Taylor, suggested important steps for creating a good reference list and these are - 1. Think who are to be added in your list and who cannot be added as a reference. 2. Know whether the references you have can vouch for you to your potential employers. 3. Remember that it is not necessary to suggest the name of your supervisor. And 4. Use the correct format for your references.
