
IN AUGUST, WHOLESALE STOCKPILES GREW BY 0.4 PERCENT

Computer equipment, heavy machinery, and large amounts of autos are all being stocked up on in wholesale businesses. Sales continue to rise after 20 straight months. Though the economy overall had been slowing for the last six months, overall it has grown 0.9 percent. More improvement is anticipated in the coming months. Read the full article here: Wholesale stockpiles grew 0.4 percent in August

<https://blog.granted.com/>