

2012 LIBRARY JOB FAIR

Living in this demanding world is not possible without an income. Finding a job is equally difficult. There are lots of job opportunities, but inspite of these, a lot of people are unemployed or don't get the right jobs. To fill this gap between the job seekers and the employers, the Cumberland County Public Library & Information Center is hosting a Job Fair. Great opportunity where you will come across diverse employment opportunities, assists you in making a good resume and workshops that give you a makeover for the interviews.

Read the full article here:

At Your Library: Library job fair offers connections - Fayetteville Observer

<https://blog.granted.com/>