
VETERANS WOULD GET A JOB BOOST WITH OBAMA'S NEW PROPOSAL

President Obama unveiled a proposal for a Veterans Jobs Corps on February 3, 2012. Speaking at a media event in Arlington, Virginia, Obama said his plan would cost $1 billion. Along with another $4 billion in federal grants, it would focus on creating job opportunities for American veterans, who experience unemployment rates far higher than the national average. Read the full article here: Proposal Would Boost Jobs for Veterans

<https://blog.granted.com/>