Drop Ship

There are thousands of companies who claim to be "Drop Shippers". There are dozens of lists and sites that claim to tell you where to find them. Don't be fooled by the junk drop ship lists that sell for $25 to $50+ and call themselves drop shippers. Most of these lists are worthless. They are resellers, charge you high retail prices, or you are required to pay a set up fee.

The good true drop shipper will not ask you for a fee. They will allow you to copy pictures of the products they sell. Prices are about half you would pay for retail. You can then set your price.

They will not include any of their material and ship under your label.

Free Information on how to drop ship, supply website free or use your own. Copy any picture listing for your website or e mail.
