

A SMALL HOME CHURCH PASTOR MAKING TENTS - HOME BUSINESS BLOG

Hi my name is Pastor Jeff Earls. I pastor a small home church in Canada and resources are limited so I am in need to 'make a few tents' so my family and I are not a burden to our small group. I have noticed over the years products found online that I thought worth the money for the cost and wondered how I could market them so I also may tap into a way to bring some food to our table without taking away from the ministry. This is what I came up with. I started this blog for products I promote. Also it is a place others can place their products on this blog freely
