10 TIPS FOR LEAVING YOUR JOB GRACEFULLY - U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT (BLOG)

Ask anyone who has ever been involved in a play, and they'll tell you the importance of knowing which side of the stage to exit. Heading off in the wrong direction could have you coming face-to-face with actors trying to enter the stage or heading to a fictional location that—during the course of the play—was clearly noted as being in a different direction. The same attention should also be applied when preparing to exit your current employer. A bad exit can have long-range consequences and should always be avoided if possible. There are as many reasons to leave a job as there are jobs to leave.
