

ILLINOIS PENSION FIX STILL A NO DEAL

Illinois' public pension crisis is still unresolved and this is causing concerns both in the elderly community and in the business environment- Illinois' credit ratings were downgraded in the last period of time. The state's leading political figures are trying to devise a program aimed at financing the public deficit for the following 30 years.

Read the full article here:

UPDATE 2-No deal on Illinois pension fix, talks to continue

<https://blog.granted.com/>