

JANUARY SEES STEADY GROWTH IN JOBS.

Job growth has been steady in the current month. Employers have been on the hiring spree, though the rate is not very high. The steady growth in hiring has contributed to improved economy in spite of speculation that budget debates in the parliament could still put a spoke in the recovery process.

Read the full article here:

Job growth likely modest but steady in January

<https://blog.granted.com/>