

UPDATE 1-BAKKEN OIL PRODUCER CONTINENTAL PLEDGES LESS NATGAS FLARING

Update 1 states Bakken oil producer Continental pledges less natgas flaring. Bakken shale, said it had reduced the amount of natural gas it flared last year. Ceres, a non-profit group representing environmental and socially conscious investor groups said on Friday one of its clients, Ryan Salmon said that it's great to see that they have this goal out there now and we hope that their peers in the industry will follow suit. We are marketing that gas to midstream marketers for use in that region.
