

TWO MISSOURI FREIGHT TRAINS COLLIDE

Seven people were hurt, none of them suffered life threatening injuries, after two transport trains collided in southeastern Missouri. The highway overpass collapsed and several rail cars were derailed. Officials at the National Transportation Safety Board announced that they will review the procedures, analyze the incident and find out the exact cause of the crash. For more details on the article Click Here

<https://blog.granted.com/>