

OBAMACARE: THE MARKETING BEGINS

Many Americans are unaware that health care exchanges under the Affordable Care Act will be in effect in about three months. Advocacy groups are stepping up to get the word out about these exchanges that are set up to provide health care coverage for many Americans. They will provide health care for many who do not presently have any coverage and will offer savings for those who choose to use them. For more details on the article Click Here

<https://blog.granted.com/>