1,000 GEARED TURBO FAN ORDERS SEEN BY PRATT

The Texas based airline engine manufacturing company, Pratt and Whitney, has recently signed a large contract for airplane engines. The new order for one thousand more engines is stacked on top of the previous 3,500 orders which still need to be filled. This is good news for the company and their employees as well as the stockholders. For more details on the article Click Here
