

COMPANIES PLAN TO TURN TO COURTS ON PUSH TO EXPORT NATURAL GAS

US companies who mine natural gas, are looking for other avenues to speed up the exportation of natural gas for sale on international markets. Congress has so far blocked much of the sale of natural gas abroad, and companies are now considering filing lawsuits as a quicker measure of obtaining the rights to sell their product abroad. For more details on the article Click Here

<https://blog.granted.com/>