

BRITAIN: OSBORNE REACHES DEAL ON SPENDING CUTS

British finance minister George Osborne had talks with government departments about securing spending cuts to reduce the budget deficit. This decision was reached just three days before Osborne was due to publish details of their spending limits. A deal was even reached with the defense department, ending one of the most difficult negotiations. For more details on the article Click Here

<https://blog.granted.com/>