

MAKING THE CUT: CAREER ADVICE FROM CASTING DIRECTOR LOUISE KIELY - THE IRISH FILM TELEVISION NETWORK

Ireland's leading casting director Louise Kiely, after casting many of successful Irish actors into the industry including Jack Reynor from "What Richard did" and the upcoming BBC TV series "Quirke," is sharing advice for a successful career in the field. According to her, meeting, discussing and breaking down the characters helps in casting right people to play the same. She believes that assisting a casting director can teach you a lot to succeed and according to her, doing commercials really helps in the career by letting you learn things with practical value and by meeting a lot of people.

Read the full article here:

Making The Cut: Career Advice From Casting Director Louise Kiely - The Irish Film Television Network

<https://blog.granted.com/>