

GLOBAL STOCKS DROP FROM SIX YEAR-HIGH

Overall, world financial markets are on a downturn, although not a severe one. March saw the U.S. markets, in particular, climb to record highs, so some see this as a natural reaction. Early April is seen as a profit taking consolidation period, so buyers are encouraged to wait out the downturn before buying anything new. For more details on the article Click Here Click here to find out which jobs are available near you.

<https://blog.granted.com/>