EDC GOLD AND R2R MEMBERS YOU HAVE BEEN CHEATED!

To land on a trustworthy teacher and mentor is a 50/50 gamble that you are willing to take right?

Ok, even I must admit that I did not know it all and that our methods were not complete. I have many influential friends in all level of the internet marketing scene but none like the one I'm about to introduce to you.

Have you been struggling to build up a regular flow of interested people to your opportunity? Better yet can you round up 25-30 signups daily? Because if you isn't then you're not in the game.

The game I am referring to is the number game, the only thing that gets you into profit mode. Not to say that an outgoing personality and charisma don't help, but if you're just getting off the ground, you will need a massive amount of web traffic directed to your main site or squeeze page.

I am introducing to you in a totally unbiased way, someone that without a shadow of a doubt will turn your life around for the better. His name is Michelangelo Lopez and I will be the first to admit that the techniques he teaches put some of the most well known gurus to shame, literally.

It is a known fact that most mentors teach you some old stuff and then use totally different advertising techniques. Now why they can't keep you up to speed on what they know just blow my mind but Michelangelo shoots from the hip and makes no distinction between the many opportunities out there. In his own words "I teach the internet, NOT EDC gold, Roadmap to riches, Password to wealth or whatever". And he is on target with a variety of FREE advertising methods that will put you into a quick, profitable business straight out of the gate! "When you follow my class, it won't matter what you're representing out there! You'll push paperclips and find success at it!"

I learned so much out of Michelangelo's that I make it a standard procedure of enrolling all my team members into his university which by the way can be found here: <http://www.allaboutinternetmarketing.com> But it doesn't matter what you aim for, do yourself a favor and blow the competition out of the water by calling my buddy and insure your success. He will love to help you, GARANTEED! He's a true pal!
