

TWO DISTRICT PRINCIPALS TO BE OUT OF A JOB SOON

Because of their students having poor scores on the Palmetto Assessment of State Standards and Measures of Academic Progress exams and low scores on the annual state report card ratings, two principals are being terminated at their current positions. One of the principals is going to Robert Smalls Middle School next year while the other has not given comment on the situation.

Read the full article here:

Two district principals will have to reapply to keep their jobs next year - Hilton Head Island Packet

<https://blog.granted.com/>