SHOPPING ADDRESS

Some years ago, purchasing articles from the United States of America and other western countries without being present there was like a dream for people, as people were not daring enough to indulge them in the trauma attached with cross-border parcel services. The shipping costs were high and there was no guarantee of package delivery. Even if you were lucky enough to receive the consignment, it would remain useless. But that scenario has changed now. A company such as oneUSAaddress.com has streamlined the whole process of purchasing and delivery of products from the USA.

You can purchase online from your favorite USA retailers and provide your USA shopping address for the delivery of your package. You can get this real and unique address by registering with oneUSAaddress.com which contains detailed information about its services, features, rates and plans. As soon as your registration process is complete, you will be assigned a shopping address. The retailers here will accept it as your shipping destination. The company will then make arrangements for the collection of materials at your shopping address. You will be constantly informed about every bit of progress your package makes. It also examines the package to ensure that the product is as per your order and repacks it beautifully. The company furnishes detailed information like package volume, package description and package condition on its website and posts an image of the package for the satisfaction of the customer. The customer can instantly review, consolidate, accept or reject a package through its website. If you have bulks of packages, the company will also provide storing facility.

The customers worldwide will feel like at home by having a shopping address in the USA. This shopping address not only helps in the procurement of packages but also in the delivery of packages at the client's home country. You can avail the benefits of the address for a specified period depending upon your registration plan. The safety of the merchandise is of prime concern for the company. It provides the best transportation facilities and you will receive your package within a week's time. The shape and condition of the package will remain intact as it was earlier. The reason for the popularity of this service is its affordable costs and easy to understand plans.

A shopping address in the USA helps to eliminate boundaries between countries. As oneUSAaddress.com covers more than 220 countries, people from far flung areas can also avail its benefits. People are never far away from their dream products. The only thing they need to do is to sign up with the company. One time user can opt for Free Plan which has no monthly fees. You have to pay one time setup charges only. The company believes in improving the online shopping experience by utilizing new ideas, providing a better service and designing better web applications.
