EASY-TO-GET-INTO CAREERS

Here is a list of four careers that are expecting large growth. Nurses are expected to be in high demand and they can make anywhere from $77,000 to $100,000 a year according to salary.com and nursing assistants can make at most $30,000 a year. Home care jobs are also in demand and the main skills needed are background in cleaning and wanting to help other people. Sales jobs, which are highly stressing, are great jobs for someone who wants to earn big bonuses and have a secure job. Manufacturing jobs are still in demand as well.
