

---

FINDING JOBS AS A TEENAGER

It is fun and quite a learning experience when you earn your first salary and that too in your teenage years. It gives you a new sense of freedom and responsibility. So, how can you find a job that is the best for teenagers and what kind of jobs you can do?

Teenager Jobs

- Teach: If you thought that it is only the teachers who can teach, it is wrong. You can even teach your peers or even your juniors. Apart from being a great service, it will no doubt, make your knowledge about the subject very strong. And research says that group studies are more enriching than studying alone. It also mentions that - if a concept is not getting inside a student's head, it can be best learned from a friend who understands it.
- Repairs: This is great for teenagers who are in their late teens. They can use their knowledge of basic mechanism to repair a few articles at the neighborhood. We are not asking you to change high tension overhead lines! Basic repairing works like that of the bicycles or skateboards can easily be done at home.
- Selling and Advertising: Either you can sell directly or enroll for young models for a particular brand. Often there are vacancies and brands love showing young blood in their advertisements because it is the youth that they wish to target more. This can be a great job with some really attractive pay!
- Community Service: You can choose to do some community service like picking up dry leaves or mowing gardens and even cleaning up the pavements of snow. Apart from being a help to the society, it is a very satisfying feeling to have done something for the community.
- Work at cafes and restaurants: This is advisable for the ones who are in 18 or 19. Solely because this involves a lot of exposure to various kinds of people at the workplace. God forbid, if any incident involves any abuse, which may leave irreparable mental scars for the young teenager, who is still struggling to understand its mind and body.

Teenager employment is not the right word because you're not being employed permanently. Instead, you're doing some jobs that are short and your involvement is not as that of the professionals. Finding jobs as a teenager is a great exercise and in the end make your teenager a wiser person!