
POTENTIAL LAYOFFS FOR LOUISIANA PRISONS

By the instructions of the Louisiana Governor Bobby Jindal, the State Department of Corrections secretary Jimmy LeBlanc, in a memorandum issued to the wardens of the five state prisons, directed to start preparations for the possible layoff of more than 1000 employees because of the $27.5 million cut in the budget as proposed by the house. The layoff plan will be implemented in the state prisons of Cottonport, Dequincy, Pineville, Keithville and Angie. Read the original article here:
