
POTENTIAL LAYOFFS TO POLICE IN CAMDEN COUNTY, NEW JERSEY

A proposal has been underway to close municipal departments and form a new countywide police department which would largely save the towns and citizen's tax money from over spending. A preliminary overview to this effect was released by Camden County's Board of Freeholders to representatives of municipalities detailing its potential benefits and how a county-wide police department can be formed. A report to this effect is available in Newsroom Jersey by Alicia Cruz. Read the original article here: Police layoffs possible with proposed Camden County-wide force - newjerseynewsroom.com

<https://blog.granted.com/>