
ALABAMA COUNTY APPROVES WIDE LAYOFFS

In order to stabilize the economy of Jefferson County, Alabama , the commissioners voted to cut the country' s current budget by $12.3 million. The finance Commissioner, Jimmie Stephens, predicts a wide layoffs as well as significant decrease in services. Budget cuts are unavoidable as the country is under severe debt and the exact number of layoffs still remains unpredictable.

Read the original article here:

Debt-Laden Alabama County Cuts Budget, Approves Wide Layoffs

<https://blog.granted.com/>